SUSTAINABILITY AWARD

Clean Seas Tuna Limited has been awarded one of the world's highest sustainability accreditations for its production of Hiramasa Kingfish and Suzuki Mulloway.

Clean Seas Tuna Limited is the first seafood company in the Southern Hemisphere to conform to the strict regulation requirements for sustainability of seafood under the Certificate No. 0012-2008-A for Kingfish and No. 0013-2008-A for Mulloway and joins a select few fish companies and supermarket chains in the world to be able to display the distinctive "Sustainability Logo" of the Friends of The Sea.

Chairman Hagen Stehr AO stated "like the environmental accreditation of ISO 14001, the Friends of The Sea sustainability logo is just another step in the equation in building a strong internationally certified company".
